would be.

SENATOR QUANDAHL: Okay.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: And I think that's a potential.

SENATOR QUANDAHL: Okay. But the way the accountability and disclosure laws are right now is for bills and for laws that we pass as a Legislature, here, there is not a specific requirement that the amount spent on lobbying or for passing certain legislation or opposing it, it's not specific to any specific bills. Is that...is that correct?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Well, I hope you know the answer to that.

SENATOR QUANDAHL: Yeah, I do know...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Okay.

SENATOR QUANDAHL: ...the answer to that. And I guess what I'm trying to say is or what...why wouldn't we apply the same sort of disclosure requirements on our own body here as we would for a constitutional amendment? Why not make it specific to certain issues?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Because, Senator Quandahl, there's such a fundamental difference.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Time. Thank you, Senator Quandahl. Senator Schimek, please. Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. I don't really intend to speak on this again, but there are a couple of things that I would like to say and...and, first of all, Senator Tyson, does it make your hair stand on end to hear me say that? (Laugh) Secondly, this is the marketplace of ideas and I have heard that. I remember hearing Vard Johnson say that one time in some huge discussion here on the floor. I wasn't even here yet, but I remember hearing him say that. I've heard Senator Chambers say that a number of times, it truly is what we are. We are the marketplace of ideas. And so when I say that I think it is an interesting idea, that means I think
