with them on most of the issues that are being discussed. So that lifts me out of the villain category into the category of almost, not quite, almost human, and I'm going to let my full humanity come into play today and vote for this $20,000 appropriation. Now I'd like to ask Senator Wehrbein a question, a serious question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Will you yield, Senator Wehrbein?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Wehrbein, have the appointments been made yet or they will not be made until after the bill takes effect?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Right, after the...after the bill becomes effective, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And from what I heard during the hearing and subsequent to the hearing,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...there's not going to be any problem finding suitable people to serve, is that true?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, I wouldn't think so, no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and the Governor will make the appointments?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And you're comfortable with that?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Your comfort is my comfort. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Jones on AM1515 to 730.
