LB 637

amendment is drafted, that the federal government wants a commitment. They want a commitment that you're going to do something. Now, we know there are other states that haven't...it's going to be...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR JANSSEN: ...a couple years before they...before they are able to get this...their systems on-line. That's why I say we don't need a waiver. A waiver is something that says that, you know, you're not going to...you're not going to comply. That's the way I look at it. And I don't want that to happen. I think we...we...if we follow what the statutes, the federal statutes say, which I think we will be doing with this type of...with this amendment, we won't have any problems getting an extension, because we are complying with it. We are complying with the...with the federal statutes and what they ask for in that. We are going to set up a centralized distribution center. We are going to set up a centralized receiving...that has...and, if they have...if they follow...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time.

SENATOR JANSSEN: ...some...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Janssen. Further discussion on the Kristensen amendment, AM1775 on LB 637? Senator Raikes.

SENATOR RAIKES: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the Legislature. I want to thank Senator Bohlke for responding to my question about the study that was done. As I understand it, if I might ask Senator Bohlke a question.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Bohlke.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes.

SENATOR RAIKES: Senator, I didn't understand for sure who...who was the author of the remarks that you...

SENATOR BOHLKE: The first...the first one was from a member of
