LB 637

Senator Thompson was kind enough to give me some more time when her time comes up and so I think that's the end of this interval.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Beutler. Senator Thompson.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Mr. President, members of the body, I yield my time to Senator Beutler.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Thank you, Senator Thompson. Senator Kristensen, this is your...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Kristensen.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...amendment so you have to get up here and talk...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: I like that. That's fine.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...about it too.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: I just appreciate the patience that's out here.

SENATOR BEUTLER: But I...but I do have some real questions while we're here, just in terms of some of the language...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Does that mean...does that mean that some of your questions that you've had in the past weren't real?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, some people call them unreal...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...sometimes.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Okay. No, thank you, I'll...I'll seriously answer.

SENATOR BEUTLER: (Laugh) I know you'll use judicious...or
