

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

May 17, 1999

was appointed by the Governor Johanns as Chair of the Excellence in Health Care Council. He's an MD, was born in Wayne, Nebraska, graduated from Laurel High School, attended University of Nebraska at Lincoln and received a doctorate from UNMC. He is in the family...practices family medicine here in Lincoln, and is current President of the Nebraska Medical Association. He's a recipient of numerous awards and active in both church and community. Next is Sandra Massey to the Excellence in Health Care Council. Sandra was born and lives in Scottsbluff. She works in the Human Resource Department and is an active community volunteer, president of the Scottsbluff United Way, director of a youth choir of her church and member of the Scottsbluff Public School Foundation Board of Directors. Next appointment to the Excellence in Health Care Council is Dr. David Corbin. Dr. Corbin was born in Toledo, Ohio, now lives in Omaha where he's a professor of health education and gerontology at UNO. Dr. Corbin received his masters degree in education from the University of Toledo, doctorate from Health Education at the University of Pittsburgh, and is current President of the Nebraska Public Health Association. Next is Cordelia Okoye to the Excellence in Health Care Council. Cordelia was born in Nigeria, now lives in Lincoln, has a BA in master...in business administration from Columbia College in Columbia, Missouri, and a masters degree in public health from the University of Tennessee. She was a midwife in London, England. She's a registered nurse and currently serves as a public health specialist and program director for the Lincoln Health Consultants, focusing on public health issues. Next is Dr. Joel Gajardo, Gajardo, to the Excellence in Health Care Council. Dr. Gajardo was born in Chili, now lives in Lincoln. He's the husband, by the way, of Carol Stiff, who many of you know I'm sure. He has a doctorate in theology from Princeton University and is currently Executive Director of the Hispanic Community Center in Lincoln. Dr. Gajardo has been an advocate for the minority public health area for many years. Next is John Klosterman, Excellence in Health Care Council. John is a cattleman and farmer from David City, a lifelong resident of Butler County, active in the last 35 years in cattle and farming organizations and various activities supporting higher education in Nebraska. He has served on the Board of Trustees for the Butler County Health Care Center for 28 years. And then also on your list is Jeff Elliott to the Excellence Health Care Council.