SENATOR TYSON: Thank you, Mr. President. I rise to state that I really kind of take offense at Senator Chambers taking all this time on the floor and I've...I've listened to some of the rumors that he can't do eight hours and, quite frankly, I don't think he can. This July he's going to be 62 years old. If he was young like I am, it might be something else, but, no. I think that he's going...he's just a shadow of his former self--gray haired, doddering. If Senator Chambers would yield for a question, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Would you yield, Senator Chambers?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'll yield for a question, arm wrestling or anything else. (Laugh)

SENATOR TYSON: Senator, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

SENATOR TYSON: I am willing to bet American money that you can't do eight hours.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You're going to put your money where your mouth is and you want me...

SENATOR TYSON: You "betcha".

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...to put my money where my mouth is?

SENATOR TYSON: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What do you want to bet?

SENATOR TYSON: I'll bet a dollar.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Twenty to...I'll bet $20 against your $1.

SENATOR TYSON: You bet how much?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I bet $20 against your $1, and this is not
