LB 382

together. We did that today, and I guess I compliment the body. I didn't do much, but I compliment the body, and I'm going to vote for this bill because I think it's the right thing to do for all of us. Thank you.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. (Visitors introduced.) Senator Lynch, your light is next to speak.

SENATOR LYNCH: Question, please.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Actually, you don't have to do that. Senator Lynch, would you like to close on your bill? Oh, yes.

SENATOR LYNCH: No, I just want to say that even though it can be frustrating at times when we debate issues like this, ultimately, in the end, hopefully, justice will out, so to speak, as they say in the melodrama. And I think the debate, as tedious or long as it may have seemed to somebody, I think couldn't help but draw out all the feelings from almost everybody who have listened to the debate. I think this is a great partnership between the state, the city, and I think ultimately it will benefit all of us in the state greatly. I would appreciate your support. And I would ask, at the same time, Madam Chairman, that everybody check in before the vote begins. And we might as well, Madam Chairman, have a call of the house and....

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Senator Lynch. There has been a request for a call of the house. All in favor vote aye, all opposed vote nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 35 ayes, 0 nays to place the house under call.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: The house is under call. Senators are asked to return to the Chambers. All unauthorized personnel are asked to leave the floor. Senator Dickey, would you please check in. Senator Kremer. The house is under call. Would all senators please return to the Chamber. Okay, we can proceed. Everyone is here, and Senator Chambers, I believe, has asked for a machine vote, record vote, Senator Chambers? Okay. The question is the advancement of LB 382 to E & R Engrossing. All of those in favor vote aye, all opposed vote nay. Has everybody
