PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator Smith, on the Schimek amendment to Amendment 1895.

SENATOR SMITH: If Senator Schimek would yield.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Schimek.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR SMITH: I appreciate that clarification and I think we're heading in the...in a right direction here. Take, for example, another scenario where there might be a project of a hundred units that is substantially occupied and they wanted to add on 25 or 50 units in the future. Would those new units apply? I mean they...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR SMITH: ...I can see...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, they...the new units would be under the new law, Senator Smith. They would not fall under the grandfathering part of this, of this amendment. They would be a new project,...

SENATOR SMITH: Instead...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...even if they're an addition to the old project.

SENATOR SMITH: Okay. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Smith. Senator Raikes.

SENATOR RAIKES: Thank you, Mr. President, members. Senator Schimek, if I could ask you a question? This is probably a...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Schimek?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR RAIKES: ...picky point, but it says on...reading on
