addiction, and this is one method, one just idea that I think we need to look at very carefully, and I have spoken to Senator Landis. As discussed earlier this morning, there is a certain amount of money, I believe about $1.7 million, that is going to the State Patrol for greater enforcement. There's also another provision that looks at, I believe, about $1.2 million. And I would very much like to see and propose an amendment, I'm not sure we'll do it right at this time but...that would increase the amount of money that would go for enforcement. Again, it is illegal for minors to purchase. However, to carry that out, when they do have it in possession, they usually are referred to, well, where did you...where did you obtain this, go back to the retailer. This again, I think, puts the responsibility where it belongs and that is on the minors that are using it. And we also have a provision that...a violation. The judge could also require that the minor and his parents attend tobacco awareness programs or perform community services. So what I'm offering...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR STUHR: ...is just another tool in this toolbox. I do believe that it is a health issue and I don't believe that LB 505 is the entire answer but I do believe that it will help in this process, and I also believe the bill that I'm proposing will be another tool that will help to curb young people in this addiction. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Stuhr. Senator Beutler.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Mr. Lieutenant Governor, members of the Legislature, just a quick remark. I think the law of unintended consequences was asserted for you by Senator Tyson, and I think that certainly it's a legitimate concern. We're all concerned about what effects, what side effects, might occur because we make this or that particular change in the law. And historically, I guess, the big lesson learned was back in the days of the Volstead Act of prohibition and we discovered, with great trauma over the length of a decade, that you can't make that kind of a giant leap and, if you do, you're at risk that it may have been too far. And there may be a lot of unintended consequences. But I think that the country and the various
