Senator Chambers, on the...we will take them up...Senator Tyson, do you have a...is it all right if we take them up in the order that I read them?

SENATOR TYSON: If...can I ask Senator Chambers a question?

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Yes.

SENATOR TYSON: Senator Chambers, would that make you happy or would you like to have it in reverse order?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Happiness is not my goal on the floor, so whatever pleases you is what we will do.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: That was your one question, Senator Tyson. We will have...

SENATOR TYSON: Yeah, that's fine. I don't care, that's fine.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The order of the division will be as I indicated, items 1 through 4.

SENATOR TYSON: One through 4.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The first part of the divided question, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, since the only copy I have is in your possession, I believe that it has to do with changing "shall" to "may" with reference to...oh, it's coming my way, so I will begin to speak because I have some general comments I should make. Oh, I have one. Thank you very much. I have some general comments I want to make on this issue. I favor women. I've been on this earth a long time and I have observed the way women have been mistreated during the entire time that I've been on this earth and conscious. In the church I attended when I was young women, by and large, were in a secondary or subordinate role. Speaking only for myself, my mother was a women. I have three sisters, a multitude of nieces. I have a daughter, two granddaughters, and I don't want the world to be for them in the future what it has been up to this point. For my part, any step, no matter how
