SENATOR COORDSEN: And bearing...bearing in mind that we have home site is...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yeah, right.

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...different from farm site.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Right.

SENATOR COORDSEN: So this would not contain a home site. So, if you had a separate area, and this does happen in some places in Nebraska,...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR COORDSEN: ...that would not have a residence, but it would be used as an active headquarters for a farm or ranch, that that land would be treated in the same manner as one that had a residence.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Which is, as the surrounding land, whatever the land use, soil type of the contiguous land.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, let me give you an example and tell me how it would be treated under your amendment, and that would probably help me as much as anything. Let's say I had a home and that's one acre over there, and that's pretty clear. Next to it I have some out buildings, maybe spread over three, four, five acres, and the out buildings include a hog confinement operation. Does that mean that that site, where those out buildings and the hog confinement operation...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time. Senator Beutler, though, your light is the very next one.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...are located, would they fall under that "except" language on page 3 and be taxed as agricultural land? Is that what is intended, or not?
