road guy, and I can't see that we're spending money...it's taxpayers dollars. We're all taxpayers in this state, whether it's at the county level, the city level, the township level, fire protection district, or whatever it is, or the state of Nebraska, it's all tax dollars in one form or another, all from the state of Nebraska who are running all of these political subdivisions from the state on down. It's all our money that we're dealing with. And if it's going to make it a lot easier for counties to look at other zoning regulations, if it's going to make it easier for someone who wants to put up a 50-sow hog confinement, to find out whether his...what zoning regulation he's going to have to follow, one place makes sense to me. And with that, I'm going to support this bill, I am. I've supported it all along. I think it's a good idea and I'm not going to change my mind. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Schmitt.

SENATOR SCHMITT: Yes, Mr. Speaker. I was probably going to make the shortest speech of the day. I was just going to tell everybody to vote yes on the amendment and vote no on the bill and was going to end my speech. But Senator Landis brought up an interesting point. If you look at your gadget, on the committee statement, it will tell you who supported this and who opposed it. And it appears there that the Cattlemen, the Farm Bureau, and those were the ones that were supportive of it, and the counties and the Rural Affairs and the Rural Voters were opposed to it. So just look at your gadget at the committee statement, it will tell you who supported it and who opposed it. And with that, I'll still say vote for the amendment, vote no on the bill.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD PRESIDING

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator. Further discussion, Senator Baker.

SENATOR BAKER: Thank you, Mr. Lieutenant Governor, members of the body. I have to answer Senator Landis. I'm one of those dues-paying members to the Cattlemen. I'm a dues-paying member of the Farm Bureau, I am one of them, I am one of them, however, I belong. Once again, back to my discussion just had
