occurs in kidnapping, which would make it a felony murder.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Let me ask you...well, see, there is a man who did...who did kill a little girl while he was raping her, and there was no kidnapping. It was not subject to the felony murder rule. What is the...what is the charge that must be brought against a person who unintentionally kills during commission of an unlawful act? Isn't that manslaughter?

SENATOR MATZKE: Well,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Isn't that what it is?

SENATOR MATZKE: Again, I think...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Matzke. I don't want to argue with you. My time will run out. If I had another time to speak, it would be different. Members of the Legislature, what Senator Matzke and Senator Bruning do not want to acknowledge is that if a person unintentionally kills a child while committing felony child abuse or sexual assault, it is not subject to the felony murder rule because it is not one of the enumerated felonies. Senator Bruning suggested he is representing the Bible believers who say an eye for an eye justifies the death penalty. But I think Senator Bruning professes to be a Christian, as most of the people in this state do, and Jesus said, you have heard it said of them, by them of old time, an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, but I tell you a different law. Bless them that curse you, pray for those who despitefully use you. To him that smite thee on the one cheek offer the other also. That's what Jesus, whom Senator Bruning professes to believe in, said. So if he is going to bring in the Bible, let him deal with the whole thing. Senator Matzke's client wound up on death row, and do you know who plucked him off death row? Not me, personally, but the bill that I supported which said you cannot execute the mentally retarded, plucked the client that he was not able to keep off death row. The legislation that I championed took him off death row because he was mentally retarded. And Clarence Victor was taken off death row because he was mentally retarded, and those are the issues that I deal in and I will continue to deal with those. But this bill does not deal with whether or not you are for the
