SENATOR LYNCH: And...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...always have been I believe.

SENATOR LYNCH: Okay.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Were they?

SENATOR LYNCH: And they'll be used to manage the...and integrate the new system? Is that how it works, or do you have any idea?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I'm sorry. What did you say?

SENATOR LYNCH: Well, the people you said have always been in the system. If they don't have this to do anymore, what will they be doing now? Will they manage the transfer of this system within their own agency?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: That is my understanding.

SENATOR LYNCH: I got you.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR LYNCH: Okay. What...what do they do? What kind of information do they get involved with? You know this is the thing, you know...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I...I appreciate...

SENATOR LYNCH: ...this is what...where I get lost.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...the question,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...but again I...

SENATOR LYNCH: And I don't mean to put you on the spot, Senator.
