spend their money. Is that it?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Pardon me?

SENATOR LYNCH: It only has to do with agencies and how...how the court system spends their money, is that it?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: No.

SENATOR LYNCH: Or do you know?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: You mean IMSD?

SENATOR LYNCH: IDSD.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: It, as I understand it, it has to do with all of their computerization. That's their general management tool within DAS.

SENATOR LYNCH: And this was the money we spent prior to the beginning of this year to get us into the new millennium? Was that was the money that was spent to do this? Because we spent a lot more than 20,000 bucks or 600,000 dollars. We spent about 30-40 million dollars.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Well, now, are you talking about the...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR LYNCH: I honestly...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...Data Services Division now...

SENATOR LYNCH: ...I honestly don't know what I'm...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...or the revolving fund? You're getting me confused.

SENATOR LYNCH: Well, I have to honestly admit, Senator, I don't know what I'm talking about, and I'm not sure if too many people around here know what we're talking about. And this is, you know, it's an amendment asked to be introduced by the Department
