SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are you married, Senator Hartnett?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yes. (Laugh)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Because the way things are now this...this is not to be facetious but to lead me to my next question. Is your wife...is the person to whom you marry...you're married a woman?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Does your wife view some things differently from the way you view them?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Has your wife ever discussed with you problems that females have in this society by virtue of being females and not given the consideration they ought to be given?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So, based on that background and your having been on this earth maybe as long as I have, do you think that females might have particular concerns in this area like they do in other areas?

SENATOR HARTNETT: Probably.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If you were making the appointments, would it have occurred to you to perhaps appoint at least one female?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I would look at the...I would probably look at the list of who was available, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Who provides the list?

SENATOR HARTNETT: It was done by the volun...they were volunteers. They were...I think it was just a list that...across the state.
