

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

February 11, 2000 LB 1004

a person was convicted of DUI in a federal court. I don't know of any federal prosecutor, that means the U.S. Attorney, who has charged anybody with DUI. So when we put all of these different things in it, I think it trivializes the law and raises questions unnecessarily because the man that they are after...

SENATOR COORDSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...did not get a conviction under the laws of the United States, under any territory, you know, Guam, Puerto Rico, and all these other places, any territory subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. Why do we need to put all that in? What I want to do, with those who are willing to work with this, and I may not prevail, is to cut a lot of this extraneous language out, get a clear picture of what the evil is that the law is aimed to rectify. And if it's the situation where people do these things in other places and come here, then that's what we should aim at and not put in things like...you know when I get frustrated? When I've agreed to work with people on something, because then I have to moderate what I say. But if I'm just going to lambaste and go after it, I don't have to be careful about...

SENATOR COORDSEN: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...what I say.

SENATOR COORDSEN: You've heard the closing. The question before the body is the adoption of the Chambers amendment to the committee amendments. All those in favor please vote aye, those opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of Senator Chambers' amendment.

SENATOR COORDSEN: The Chambers amendment is adopted. Moving back then to the committee amendments, Senator Vrtiska, did you wish to speak to the bill or to the committee amendments? Senator Dierks. We are on the committee amendments.

SENATOR DIERKS: Well, thank you, Mr. President and members of the body. I will speak to the committee amendments because I
