community obviously will be broader than that of the franchisee's community, but we don't have a definition. So would the community of the consumer be any place within the state where that consumer might purchase a Honda? And you may not have the answer, but I'm just showing where we have different terminology here from the only definition of "community" in the existing law.

SENATOR BROMM: I think you've tied it together, at least for me, and I don't know if I...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR BROMM: ...am...if I'm answering this correctly, but my observation is that when you look back at the definition of "community" on line...on line 9 of page 7, and you look at consumer's community on page 19, line 10, I think they would be obligated to simply identify the franchise holder in the area in which that consumer lives. Now, Omaha is even divided up into different franchise areas, as I understand it, so if I call from a certain area of Omaha I think they would need to identify the franchisee where that consumer lives in that part of Omaha. That's my impression. Now maybe it isn't worded that way, but that's...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And maybe we can get to that, but now I'm going to go back to maybe an underlying question, and it may not have been Senator Beutler's. Since we're talking about advertisement, can Nebraska put restrictions or mandate requirements...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...for advertising?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Mr. Clerk, is there a motion?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Bromm would move to amend with AM2426. (AM2426, Legislative Journal page 703.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Bromm, you're recognized to open on
