

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

February 16, 2000 LB 1018

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, or other person, whoever that might be, a broker, I assume, of some sort?

SENATOR BROMM: It's necessary for them to get a license or to deliver through a dealer that is licensed.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay, so if they deliver through a dealer who is licensed...

SENATOR BROMM: Or...or...

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...then there's nothing else that they need to be licensed for.

SENATOR BROMM: I don't think so, Senator Beutler, but I will...I will double check on that. And again, if they want to sell and not deliver in the state, that other person, that...that's their prerogative. If they want to sell on the Internet, the other person, not deliver, I guess they can always do that. We have...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Further discussion of the Beutler amendment? Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, I'd like to ask Senator Beutler a question, if he would yield.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Beutler, I followed your discussion, but what does your amendment do?

SENATOR BEUTLER: You want to know what the amendment does?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'd like to. (Laugh)

SENATOR BEUTLER: (Laugh) Senator Chambers, let me tell you what the amendment was intended to do, and let me also tell you
