

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

February 24, 2000 LB 659

abstract, almost, as the...and hypothetical rather than what's going on that motivates this language, what's happened, in which case I'd be happy to try to solve a problem if I knew what the problem was, who was involved, and what was going on. I bet I've got about four minutes left. If you want to take any of that amount of time, I want to...here's what...here's what the deal is. I want to know what the story is behind the language. If you can...if you can tell me that story without violating confidence, I'd like to hear it.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Quandahl.

SENATOR QUANDAH: Going to be a fairly short recitation right now because I don't have the facts to flesh it out. It's actually...it was an amendment that was placed up to address a potential problem and right now I don't have any specific charities or any specific stories to tell you to flesh out the background behind it. And so, if that's a response to your question, I hope it's...I hope it's sufficient.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Quandahl, Senator Landis. (Visitors introduced.) Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Chambers would move to amend Senator Quandahl's amendment. In the amendment, in line 4, strike the new matter, which I believe, Senator, it would read "to the exclusion of all others"? (FA299, Legislative Journal page 788.)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

CLERK: Okay.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Chambers, you're recognized to open on your amendment to AM2540 to LB 659.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I'm in the situation of somebody who's been asked to ride a ship. I don't know whether it's the Titanic, which if I knew in advance I wouldn't get on, the Andrea Doria, which if I knew in advance I wouldn't get on, or whether it's that...that...what's that boat, the party boat that they have..."The Love Boat",
