then in fact what will happen is the local effort will have to go up, because you have the value out there...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yeah.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...to address that.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No, it doesn't...what the bill does is it says you're still responsible for needs, but you're not responsible just for pure valuation increases that exceed the level of increase in needs.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Oh. Well, I'm...I guess I'm...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: You're still going to be responsible for needs.

SENATOR VRTISKA: I understand that part of it. I understand that part of it. Well, I don't want to prolong this except...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yeah.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...I'm just trying to get a better picture of how this will...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yeah.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...I'm...I'm glad to be signed on to the bill in one side, but yet not some things I don't totally understand and I guess I just need to have you make it more clear, and I'm not...maybe everybody else in this body understands it better than I do and I accept that, but at the same time I'm trying to get a clear picture how this is actually going to play out if, in fact, this bill passes. And I...I guess over the past years we've been...there's been something happen we didn't anticipate and I'm trying to...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Um-hum.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...make sure that that doesn't happen in this particular case. So I don't want to prolong the debate. I just want to get a clear picture as this moves through I can begin to
