LB 973

were picking it up off the doorstep, one thing and another. That was another problem with this but the bill doesn't really address that, but it does the taxation problem.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: You've heard the opening on the committee amendments. We're now debating those amendments. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, I have to ask Senator Janssen a question. Senator Janssen, in effect, the committee amendment becomes the bill. Is that correct?

SENATOR JANSSEN: That's right, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, you said something about minors.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Um-hum.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Where is that in this bill?

SENATOR JANSSEN: I'm just saying that that is one of the problems with mail order alcohol that comes into the state.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But nothing about that is...

SENATOR JANSSEN: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...mentioned specifically in the bill.

SENATOR JANSSEN: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now what I have to ask you is, I'll listen to you, what does this bill do in terms of enforcement of its provisions?

SENATOR JANSSEN: Well, Senator Chambers, the enforcement part of it is in...it is in our laws now that you have, with this bill,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But here's what I mean.
