LB 923

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Hartnett, would you yield?

SENATOR HARTNETT: I'll try to answer Senator Chambers' question. (Laugh)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Hartnett, where in the bill if you...oh, is the only change made in this bill the word "predecessor"? Is that the...

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yeah.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I see it now. I was looking for something underlined and that would be found on page 2, line 15.

SENATOR HARTNETT: Yes. Correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Unfortunately, Senator Hartnett's bill has to go by the boards, but I did want to at least understand what the bill is about that I'm going to subject to my ministrations this morning. I have on my desk a handout to assist my dealing with Senator Hartnett's bill, and Senator Hartnett was very interested in what that handout consisted of and I wouldn't tell him. He asked me, did it come from the World-Herald, and I started to tell him where it came from. Then I changed my mind and wouldn't tell him that. But there is a little rhyme associated with this handout so that people will understand, who may not have received a copy or may not be able to find it on their desk if it's in the condition of some of our desks. There is a picture of an individual who is promising to unseat our esteemed colleague and I'd refer to this as a picture of a two-faced individual and some people thought I should not say that because the person was not here to defend himself. So I've decided when the appropriate time came I would give a copy to my colleagues of the picture that appeared in the Bellevue Leader, and we all have been told that the camera does not lie, that the camera records whatever is in front of it. If we're making a funny face and don't intend that to be caught and the camera is
