presented the testimony on the value of this particular legislation. And I agree that...

SENATOR ROBAK: Senator...

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...that it's a...

SENATOR ROBAK: Oh, excuse me.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...program that's...that's worthwhile. It's just a matter of...a matter of making sure that the inspection process and training process is properly carried out so, in fact, the quality of the inspection would be at the level that we'd want it to be. And, with that, I really don't have any other problem...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...so, did you have something you wanted to add?

SENATOR ROBAK: I, yes, one thing I did find out from...my staff handed me a note, going through our files here, that Dr. Kruckenberg was the new director in Kansas and he is the one that we are working with on the drafting of this bill and seeing that this bill got on the floor, did tell us that they did have some trouble in 1998, but they...they brought a new person that...and he came in to testify that they cleaned it up and so some of those problems have been solved.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Well...

SENATOR ROBAK: That might be what you're referring to, I'm not really sure.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Yeah, I think that brings out the point that I'm trying to get to and that is these inspection are no better than the people that are put on (inaudible)...

SENATOR ROBAK: I understand.

SENATOR VRTISKA: ...and I hope that the training from the
