LB 628

me, I ought to be taking out after this bill, shouldn't I?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Oh, no, I don't think so. (Laughter)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If that characterization is accurate, then it would seem that logically, if I were to act in accord with that characterization, this is a bill that I should be taking out after or that I would be taking out after, isn't that true?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Well, if the characterization were accurate, Senator Chambers, but you know I've progressed to the point where I have great respect for your tear but I'm not totally intimidated by it, and I recognize that oftentimes a fundamental fairness flows through it, and I'm relying on that.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then you also understand, don't you,...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...Senator Brashear, that I know how to exercise judgment and selectively carry out whatever my intentions are, you are aware of that, aren't you?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Absolutely, wholly within your discretion.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And am I one who exercises discretion...

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Oh, yes, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...in a discretionary fashion?

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Yes, you do, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. That's all that I had.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Coordsen, for discussion on the Brashear amendment to the committee amendments to LB 628.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Mr. President, and members of the body, and as Senator Brashear indicated I do have an amendment that will follow after the adoption of the Brashear amendment to the amendment, and that will then, with the adoption of that
