SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...because you can...

SENATOR BROMM: ...Des Moines was under city ordinance of Des Moines.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You can more easily and readily determine how state prosecutions are conducted and procure the records that would be involved. It's like giving full faith and credit and I don't think that ought to be given to city and village ordinances.

SENATOR BROMM: Okay, so you're saying it would be more difficult to determine what...what the...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: The process...

SENATOR BROMM: ...conviction was or...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right, the process by which a conviction was procured.

SENATOR BROMM: Okay, do we have something to substantiate that or is that what your feelings are...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time.

SENATOR BROMM: ...in general?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: My light is on.

SENATOR BROMM: Okay.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Bromm. Senator Chambers, your light is on next.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. President, and I'll let Senator Bromm continue his questioning.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Bromm.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Chambers, I think I understand what you're saying but I don't know that
