March 15, 2000 LB 271, 968

don't know, it says...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: LB 271.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Is that just on one part of it?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yes, that's LB 271.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: I think that's what you're asking about, Senator.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes, just that part of it.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay. Yes.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I guess a little bit on the greenbelt and maybe this is just to contribute to my understanding, it's not...section also provides that both the special valuation and recapture valuations may be equalized by the county board, the Agricultural Land Valuation Board, and the tax equalization.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Right.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That means that all three of those, in their wisdom, may make adjustments when that green...greenbelt comes back?

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Well, at both levels, Senator, both the special valuation level and the recapture valuation level, but it's the same kind of a process that you'd have with any other kind of property now subject to full market value. All of those entities participate...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: So you're just making clear that greenbelt is subject to, I'll call it, negotiation, if I may,...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Well,...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...the values. I mean if equalization...
