SENATOR CROSBY: ...the average salaried person is buying the house and paying through the bank. I mean most people do not do that.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yeah.

SENATOR CROSBY: They set up the escrow through their payment that's every month so the bank is the one that's making the payment.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Right. And this simply allows them to do the same thing but through the treasurer's office.

SENATOR CROSBY: And so the treasurer has to set up an escrow account.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That's correct.

SENATOR CROSBY: See, I just think that adds to the county expense.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Well, if they don't want to do it, they won't.

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay. Well, I just wanted to be sure...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Yeah.

SENATOR CROSBY: ...that I understood that that's what...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: No.

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: And, really, if they don't want to do it, they won't.

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, I hope they don't do it. Thank...

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Okay.

SENATOR CROSBY: ...you. (Laugh) I'll write my treasurer.
