farther down the line and I wouldn't even have to debate it any further. I wish I would be given that opportunity, and there are others who wish that would be given to them.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So, if you think that, as a Legislature, we owe more to an individual than we do to the system, then go ahead and debate a bill which is virtually redundant, which even if enacted is not going to add anything significant to what has already been done. In fact, I...I drafted it for you and passed it out for you on your
