enough, and it...

SENATOR BEUTLER: It might well...

SENATOR RAIKES: ...might be that if I was 580th that would be good enough.

SENATOR BEUTLER: That might well be.

SENATOR RAIKES: How would we tell that? Who...who would determine whether...whether 500th is good enough or not?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, I guess the State Department of Education, Senator, would have to set up some sort of system to make that kind of determination.

SENATOR RAIKES: Okay. So...so, we're going to...we're going to place that burden on them, which I understand. Okay, now let's say we did that and they said, look, 578th is not good enough; that is not acceptable. Now what?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, Senator, if the...if it is an accreditation standard and they don't meet that criteria, then they are not an accredited school.

SENATOR RAIKES: So I would lose my accreditation?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, if you had...if you had a standard in place, yes.

SENATOR RAIKES: Well, we're assuming that this amendment passes and so on. So...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Okay.

SENATOR RAIKES: ...so now I'm not accredited, so now what?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, if you're not accredited then I assume that you're not...you're not authorized to teach kids.

SENATOR RAIKES: So suppose I've got some students that are in my...well,...
