

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

March 27, 2000 LB 1010

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: That's correct. But it is...it is possible that a different result would be reached based on...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: One minute.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...the unique history of the constitutional provisions that have governed school lands and, after the establishment of the board, the board.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Okay, I...and I...I think that's generally my understand...or my question is that how far can you go with a statute telling them how far to manage, and I don't...I don't know the answer and I think you've confirmed that there is not an answer to that question and I...I appreciate your candor. I'd yield the time if you had a response, Senator.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Oh, there was...well, even before LB 1205 there was...there were other legislative attempts to direct sales of real estate. LB 1205 was not the first effort in that area, if that is the issue. It is...it is, in my view, unclear how far the Legislature can go.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senators. Senator Vrtiska, on the Chambers amendment.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you, Mr. Speaker or Lieutenant Governor. Start out by saying that I support the Chambers amendment. Doesn't do a lot, but I guess it does what he wants to do. But to continue with the Wickersham amendment, I'm a little like Senator Wehrbein, I don't have that much land down in my area. But I just have a couple questions for Senator Baker.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Baker, would you yield?

SENATOR BAKER: Yes.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Senator Baker, it's interesting because a lot of the land that we had in my area of the state was sold years
