vetoed. I have a very jaundiced eye about this whole methodology that the university utilizes. The regents agreed to some $10 million for a baseball field. They got plenty of money over there. Why doesn't the university side ask the Athletic Department, which is an adjunct to the univers...excuse me, let me correct that, the university which is an adjunct to the Athletic Department ought to ask the Athletic Department to lend them enough money to take care of the Sheldon Art Gallery, and to take care of those health insurance premiums. They can throw money away for the baseball diamond, and they don't even have a good baseball team from all I know, and maybe they do. Then raise the ticket price, and they can give a coach a $1 million, which he turned down. That ought to tell you something about the reputation...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...of Nebraska. I don't know what it tells you, but it ought to say something. Almost anybody would agree to come here and stay a year for $1 million. I would, although I stay here for nothing. They might pay $1 million to get rid of me, but at any rate, I am not going to vote for this package. I'm only one vote. I'm sure there are 30 votes out of however many of us are here this afternoon, but I wanted to make my position clear, and I don't think at this point I will speak on the package again, unless somebody says something that provokes me.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: (Visitors introduced.) Senator Schmitt.

SENATOR SCHMITT: Yes, Mr. Speaker, members, I just have a question for Senator Wehrbein.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Wehrbein, would you respond?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR SCHMITT: Senator Wehrbein, if you know, do you know what percent that the university employees put into that health care compared to what the others across the state do?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: It's been 9 percent, Senator Schmitt, and
