then I'll open on it.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Bohlke, would you desire to put the house under call?

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yes, let's put the house under call. I'm sorry.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Been a request to place the house under call. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Record.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 0 nays to place the house under call.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: House is under call. All members please return to the Chamber. All unexcused members please check in. The house is under call. The house is under call. Members, the house is under call. Senator Bohlke, this is counting against your opening.

SENATOR BOHLKE: How much remaining time do I have?

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Bohlke, you have roughly seven minutes.

SENATOR BOHLKE: (Laugh) I've never talked seven minutes.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Lynch, Senator Matzke, the house is under call. Senator Price. Senator Bruning, Senator Quandahl, the house is under call. Senator Dickey, Senator Hartnett, the house is under call. Senator Kremer, Senator Vrtiska, Senator Kiel. Senator Bohlke.

SENATOR BOHLKE: Yeah, thank you, Mr. President and members. The reason I was using the opening time and putting the house under call is I had the feeling that there was a great deal of confusion that Senator Beutler and I were trying to clear up for you before we had the break, but it was difficult because you did not have the amendment. As I'm speaking now, you have a bullet sheet passed...being passed out to you. The amendment before you actually becomes the bill. And perhaps the easiest way to explain it would be to say that next year, if you had a
