Transcriber's Office

April 4, 2000

this are better left, at least as a preliminary matter, to a group of people to hash out and then present to you, rather than trying to deal with them one by one. I think Senator Chambers is right. And so with that, Mr. Clerk, I would withdraw and put it in the look at hopper.

SENATOR CUDABACK: It is withdrawn.

SENATOR BEUTLER: And I would do the same with the next amendment up and any other amendments I have, but I think I just have the one.

CLERK: Everything you have, Senator?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yeah, I think I just have one more.

CLERK: Can you tell me where that look at hopper is, Senator, I'd be happy (laughter)...

SENATOR BEUTLER: It's on Senator Kristensen's desk.

CLERK: Very good, all right, thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: So ordered. Mr. Clerk, next item to the bill.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment then, with Senator Beutler's withdrawal, Senator Bromm, I have AM3256. (Legislative Journal page 1553.)

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Bromm, to open on AM3256.

SENATOR BROMM: Thank you, Senator Cudaback. Members of the Legislature, this will be a hands down, slam dunk, uncontroversial piece of cake, piece of carrot cake, Senator Wickersham. (Laugh) This amendment I am offering to try to get a feel for the body's intent and mood with respect to what I thought perhaps would be one of the issues that we would discuss in the whole area of LB 1021. This goes into page 2 of the AM3201 amendment, Section (b), and it basically attempts to rewrite that Section (b), and here's what it would do, and, if it's an idea that we buy into, it may still need some refinement
