

TRANSCRIPT PREPARED BY THE CLERK OF THE LEGISLATURE
Transcriber's Office

April 5, 2000

LB 819

let me resume where I left off. The only way interest can be generated in a bill like this is for somebody to do what I'm doing at this point, and that's to cause people to maybe wonder just what all is in this bill. But I don't think because of the nature of the bill, there would be enough interest generated for anybody to read it. Senator Jensen, have you ever heard or read the comment, "Vengeance is mine. I shall repay," thus sayest the Lord?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Isn't it possible that vengeance or revenge can be such an all-consuming emotion and generate such satisfaction that the Lord was trying to suggest that it can be such a dangerous commodity that it ought to be left only in the hands of the Lord? Is that a possible interpretation of that?

SENATOR JENSEN: That's the way I would interpret it, yes, I would.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you agree with what I've said that vengeance and revenge are things that can be very dangerous in the hands of the uninitiated?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think that I am initiated enough to be able to handle revenge? I want your honest opinion.

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You think I could...so I'm in a position to take revenge if I want to?

SENATOR JENSEN: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Do you think I ought to take revenge this morning?

SENATOR JENSEN: I would hope not on this bill.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'm not asking for your hopes. Do you think