a question was asked, has he had problems before, then the Governor became very sanctimonious and self-righteous and said, well, to protect the privacy of my son, I won't answer that question. He had left nothing private. It's one thing for a hypocritical politician to say, in my public life I'm going to expose other things, but don't make public the life of family members. There are some people who respect the privacy of their family so much that if a member is in an accident they'll tell the hospital, don't even tell the media the condition of this person. So he got...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...all this sympathy. I got to put my light on again.

SENATOR CUDABACK: It's on, Senator.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh.

SENATOR CUDABACK: It's off now, but push it one more time, just one time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It's not on.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, it's on.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Not here, though.

SENATOR CUDABACK: It's on here, that's the main thing.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Am I to continue?

SENATOR CUDABACK: Yes, you may. You have 30...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Since I have five minutes...

SENATOR CUDABACK: You have 30 seconds on your original time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and then will my light be next?

SENATOR CUDABACK: No, it will not, Senator.
