Transcriber's Office
FLOOR DEBATE

January 10, 2003

notable announcement that I would like to make. Over here in the left corner, towards the front of the Chamber, is someone that we all have come to know and appreciate and love and it is a person who has a birthday on Sunday and who would never tell us if we didn't find out in some other way, and that happens to be Kitty Kearns, our supervisor of Pages. I'd like to express our appreciation for all of her work. We wish you a happy birthday, Kitty, and don't do anything too wild so you can't be here Monday. Mr. Clerk, do you have any announcements?

CLERK: I do, Mr. President. Education Committee...no, strike that. They don't want to meet right now, but Business and Labor Committee will meet now underneath the...I'm not sure where the Business and Labor Committee is meeting. I'm sorry, I guess underneath the north balcony. Transportation Committee will meet now underneath the south balcony. And a reminder, Rules Committee will be meeting at 11 o'clock in Room 2022.

Mr. President, the Banking, Commerce, and Insurance Committee will be meeting in Room 2022 now; Banking, Commerce and Insurance, Room 2022 now. And Natural Resources will meet at 11 o'clock underneath the north balcony; Natural Resources, 11 o'clock, underneath the north balcony.

A reminder, Mr. President, the Banking Committee is trying to conduct an Executive Session now in Room 2022; Banking Committee, Room 2022.

SPEAKER BROMM: Mr. Clerk, do you have a motion on the desk?

CLERK: I do, Mr. President. Senator Dwite Pedersen, as Chair of the Committee on Committees, would move the adoption of the final Committee on Committees report. I might indicate to the membership a revised final copy, you will find a copy at each of your desk stations. (Legislative Journal pages 55-57.)

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Dwite Pedersen, you're recognized to open on the motion.

SENATOR DW. PEDERSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. The Committee on Committees met on Wednesday and adopted a preliminary report.
