FLOOR DEBATE

January 13, 2003

throws something in that you don't like and you think is just horrible from the point of view of your committee, you simply don't schedule it for a public hearing until the end of the year. I mean it's as simple as that. So this is not...this is not a big power grab. This is to try to get information before everybody and so everything is considered, so that we're never ever criticized for not having brought up something that was important, not having discussed something that was important, especially in these particular times. Thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Senator Beutler a question.

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Beutler, would you yield, please?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Beutler, under the current rules...let me start the question a different way. We can accomplish what it is that's being discussed this morning under the current rules. Isn't that true?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Members of the Legislature, you've all heard that "cliche-ic" expression, which I hate but I'm going to use it this morning, if it ain't broke don't fix it. If something can be done under the rules, as they stand now, why amend the rules? I'm not going to be able to support this proposal. If Senator Wehrbein can persuade enough of you to adopt it then the rules will be changed and the Appropriations Committee will be given something extra which the Appropriations Committee does not need in order to carry out what we've been told is the purpose of this change. I don't know what kind of argument that could be more persuasive than that which was provided by Senator Beutler's answer to my question, and I'm sure Senator Wehrbein and everybody else who is familiar with this that we're discussing would give. What is desired to be achieved can be achieved under the rules right
