FLOOR DEBATE

January 28, 2003 LB 306

hand, with a certain amount of money in a bucket, it doesn't matter to "Mr. Coffee" or "Ms. Tea" what you call it when you take money out of that bucket. What each of these individuals knows is that after those ministrations, there is less money in their bucket and more money in the coffers of the one who took it. Whether you call it a fee, a surcharge, a licensing cost, it amounts to a tax, because it's taking money from the citizen. I want to emphasize that Senator Stuhr has told us that these fees do not need to be raised. These fees do not need to be raised. So why at this time are we being confronted with this? Because you have arrogant, disregarding people running the Game and Parks Commission, and they don't even have to use sound judgment when they come to the Legislature, because they have so many people who will roll over and give them what they want that during the most...

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...politically inopportune time, they can come to the Legislature and say, look, dunderheads, give me the authority to raise these fees at a time you're talking about cutting everything else, and the Legislature wants to take that out of the discussion and pretend that nobody sees what's being done there. If Game and Parks or any of these other agencies had respect for these legislators and the Legislature as an institution, a bill like this would not be before us. But I don't blame them. A committee sent it out here. A committee sent this out here to us. That committee is not doing its job of straining or serving as a sieve to keep bad legislation from coming here. But when you bring it on the floor, don't expect me to roll over, swallow, spit, and go along and be irresponsible like the members of that committee. From my point of view. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Chambers. There are no more speakers. Senator Chambers, you're recognized to close on your motion to indefinitely postpone LB 306.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Speaker and members of the Legislature, what I could do is pull this motion. Then I could file it again. But that's not what I'm going to do. I will find plenty
