veterinarians also?

SENATOR SCHROCK: I don't believe so, Senator Chambers. The answer is no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Could you check to be sure?

SENATOR SCHROCK: I did check.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and they don't have any vets.

SENATOR SCHROCK: They don't have any veterinarians.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You and I had talked about hunting and fishing, and let's go to fishing. We know that you need the fishing license; we know you need the aquatic stamp. If you're going to fish on public property, do you also have to have a park permit...

SENATOR SCHROCK: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...to do that?

SENATOR SCHROCK: No. No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Are there any parks where fishing occurs?

SENATOR SCHROCK: Yes, I believe there is. Yes, that's yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And in those situations would the aquatic stamp and the fishing license do away with the need to have also a park permit?

SENATOR SCHROCK: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: So you, in that case, have to have three documents before you could fish.

SENATOR SCHROCK: That's correct.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What areas...
