FLOOR DEBATE

January 29, 2003 LB 122

we have elderly people that go down and fish for trout. They probably go three, four times a week. This is something that they're able to do, they enjoy doing, and I know I end up with a lot of those fish on occasions and they want me to smoke them. Those little trout are delicious smoked. But I just...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR JANSSEN: ...I think that we forget about the areas that we have in this state. We don't have any mountains, we don't have any huge entertainment centers throughout the state, but we do have some natural resources that we need to protect, maintain. I know the area in Fremont now has several boat ramps that you can put your boat in. They have campsites. They have roads, a street designation around that area, and it's just a wonderful site and it's used by people from all over the state. If they're passing by, they'll stop in and park their camper there. They can fish. They can enjoy the outdoors. And the movie About Schmidt, I don't know how many of you have seen it, but there's a scene in there that's taken by those state lakes. It's a...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Senator Cudaback.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Janssen. Senator Chambers, on your amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, where there's a will there's a way. The Legislature doesn't have the will so I'm not going to provide the way right now, but at some point I will make a suggestion, and it may be rejected, but what the Legislature does on this bill is going to determine to a great extent what I do on other bills. And I have an advantage this session. There are going to be evenly divided, roughly evenly divided, sides on a lot of stuff that comes up, and whereas you all can just pass this off because it's a little thing and doesn't make much difference, when we get to those others that are a big thing to you, then I'm going to be a much bigger stumbling block then. You can steamroll over me on this
