cost, but it would easily fall within that $5 million, I believe. So...and that's one of the bigger costs of all of this. So if Senator Beutler would wish to continue, did you have any further questions, Senator Beutler? I would give you the rest of my time if you do.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator, thank you. I have my light punched...

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Okay.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...and I won't use any more than my last opportunity speak.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Then I would return the rest of my time to the Chair.

PRESIDENT HEINEMAN: Thank you, Senator Schimek. Senator Stuthman.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Thanks, Mr. President and members. I do have one question for Senator Schimek at this present time. The current system that we're doing on the county level with the election commissioners and the clerks of those counties that utilize both, both positions for either one of the jobs, are we doing that electronic identification at the present time now?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: I'm sorry, Senator. Could you speak into the microphone? I'm having trouble...

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Okay.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...hearing you.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Okay.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Would you repeat your question?

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Is this better? Is this better?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, thank you.
