FLOOR DEBATE

February 3, 2003 LB 305

honey that he wanted, and left. Not one single sting. The bees did not swarm out of their nest and kill everything moving, everything in sight, because this was not an exploitive relationship; this was based on a live and let live philosophy. Unfortunately, not only does that philosophy not exist between human beings in this country, and that's why everybody wants to carry a pistol, it does not exist between human beings and the animals over whom humans supposedly exercise stewardship. I'm going to support this bill. And I hope there's no attempt to remove that section that we've been discussing. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Tyson.

SENATOR TYSON: Call the question, please.

SPEAKER BROMM: There are no further lights on at this time, Senator Tyson, so it won't be necessary. Senator Schrock, you're recognized to close on the committee amendments. Senator Schrock waives closing on the committee amendments. Members, the question before us is the adoption of the committee amendments to LB 305. All in favor please vote aye; opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of committee amendments.

SPEAKER BROMM: Committee amendments are adopted. Is there any further discussion on the bill? Seeing none, Senator Schrock, you're recognized to close on the advancement of LB 305 to E & R Initial.

SENATOR SCHROCK: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, I thank Senator Jensen for taking a look at the issue of who and who can't hunt. And that probably does need some work. Certainly we need to be sensitive to those kind of issues. I'd like to thank Senator Eyars and Senator Vrtiska for their understanding on this bill. You know, serving in the Legislature gives you an opportunity to experience things you wouldn't otherwise experience. I, as a lad growing up on the farm, my father had pigs back then. And I know, whenever we fed
