FLOOR DEBATE

February 4, 2003 LB 72

composed of that many members you're bound to come up with some notions that the public may view as crackbrained, but we would hope those are looked at as aberrations and not the rule. But those are the things that stick out in the minds of the public. There is no checkoff that I'm aware of to provide medication for people who have HIV/AIDS, even though money to provide that medication is gone, even though the Governor's administration bungled the opportunity to get some federal money, and money that the federal government would have given was gone. And I think that's based on a particular religious prejudice against people who are afflicted with HIV/AIDS. But I can think of many items that would have a priority which have not had the opportunity that the State Fair has had to succeed. Senator Vrtiska, while you're on your feet, how many years, if you know, has there been a State Fair in Nebraska?

SPEAKER BROMM: Senator Vrtiska.

SENATOR VRTISKA: A hundred and thirty years, at least.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. Members of the Legislature, 130 years is not sufficient time to determine whether something is going to work or not? If it is providing such a wonderful service, activity, or outlet...

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...for the public, should not they have determined that in 130 years? That is more than four score and seven years ago. I don't believe this bill should pass. I do not believe a compelling argument has been given for the passage of this bill. If an emotional pitch is to be made to show why, at one time, there was a State Fair in Nebraska, fine. If people want to get out on the hustings to talk to people like Warren Buffett to seek donations to continue it, fine. But to use the taxing system or the process or these forms is not fine, and I'm opposed to the bill. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Stuthman.

SENATOR STUTHMAN: Mr. Speaker and members of the body, I look
