February 11, 2003 LB 355

that director in Texas to file his whole tax return here in Nebraska in order to work through the process of deciding what we will and won't tax, and what's attributable and what isn't. And I'd like to know what our motives are. Again, I'm back to what are we after and why are we after it, and will somebody make the dispassionate case that this is a worthwhile exercise in public policy by this body as opposed to some other mission? And I think with that, I've illustrated what my concerns are and I'll sit down...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: ...and ask Senator Landis to respond on his own time. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Brashear. Senator Brashear, your light is next. Did you wish to utilize that? He withdraws that option. There are no further lights on. Senator Landis, did you wish to close on the advancement of LB 355? Senator, your light is on also. Did you wish to speak, or are you closing?

SENATOR LANDIS: I thought I'd turn my light on so that it would permit some further discussion, if Senator Brashear wishes to do so.

SENATOR CUDABACK: So you're not closing then.

SENATOR LANDIS: I'm not closing. This would give Senator Brashear a chance to...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you.

SENATOR LANDIS: ...respond. I don't want to cut him off. Senator Brashear, the...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Brashear, would you respond?

SENATOR LANDIS: ...Department of Revenue didn't come to us and say, well, we had a fit of pique in dealing with some companies and we want to reach out and smack them and teach them a lesson
