FLOOR DEBATE

February 14, 2003 LB 99

that would say, if you're going to grant these counties the opportunity to add sales taxes and use that money to draw people to their county, but it's a county that discriminates against people in employment because of their sexual orientation, that should be placed on a banner and let everybody know Omaha is trying to build a convention center but they believe in discrimination against people because of their sexual orientation. When they're out there beating the bushes to try to get conventions to come to Nebraska, that message ought to go along with it that people,...

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...because of their sexual orientation, not only are hated and treated with contempt in this state, but the law reinforces this, and the official policy of the state is one of discrimination. And why should you come to a state like that? Why should you spend your money in a state like that? Why should you undergird official discrimination? People need to know that. And my advice to all of those groups who are opposed to discrimination, that if they know how to work the Internet, if they know how to get the message out, they should get the message out about the kind of place Nebraska is, and before they start scheduling any conferences or conventions or seminars in Omaha or any of these other counties, know that those counties, the city of Omaha and the state of Nebraska hold it as a sacred tenet of their...

SPEAKER BROMM: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: You said time?

SPEAKER BROMM: Time. Senator Vrtiska.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members of the body. As the Chair of the Business and Labor Committee, I thought I should, because Senator Schimek brought it up, I thought I should let you know that the bill that was talked about in the Business and Labor Committee dealing with sexual discrimination or on sexual orientation, the bill will be... the Executive Session will be held on Tuesday morning at 8:15 by the
