FLOOR DEBATE

February 14, 2003 LB 99

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, I would like to ask Senator Beutler a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Beutler, will you yield to a question from Senator Chambers?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Beutler, had you suggested that some of this money could be used for that Arch out by Kearney?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator, it could be, if they wanted to.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, thank you. Senator Hartnett, I'd like to ask you a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Hartnett, would you respond?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you be amenable to an amendment which says if they're going to use money for that Arch out there, on one side of the road they have to put pink tusks and a trunk, and on the other side a tail, and rename it the pink elephant? Would you accept that?

SENATOR HARTNETT: (Laugh) That would be an interesting proposal, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, I'll let you meditate. I won't require an answer right now. Thank you. Members of the Legislature, that is a debacle. It was a boondoggle from the beginning. I attacked it mercilessly, not only from this side of the state. I was out in Kearney giving talks, not invited to talk about that but anything I want to talk about, and I spoke about it and against it on the Kearney State College campus, on...I forget the other places I spoke. But everywhere I spoke I ridiculed it, I mocked it and said it shows a lack of thought and what happens when you're going to try to go along with somebody because you like that person and you're going to mortgage others and the entire area to put some pipe dream thing up that is an abomination. The best thing probably that could happen, and I would hope no people are in it when this happens...probably none would be on it anyway, in it, from what I've read about the attendance...let a tornado come straight down the interstate and
