FLOOR DEBATE

February 28, 2003 LR 11

section. Now we're being given a second definition of a game of chance, which is a game played for money, credit, or any representative of value. Are those different or are those the same? And if they're the same, that means that the first paragraph of the article has no meaning whatsoever because it says, except as provided in this section. But if you're excepting all of the games of chance that are defined in the first paragraph,...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...then you're going nowhere at all. It's a conflict.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Beutler. For discussion, General Affairs Committee amendments to constitutional amendment, LR 11, Senator Schrock, followed by Senators Chambers, Stuhr, Janssen, Smith, Aguilar, Brashear, and Beutler. Senator Schrock.

SENATOR SCHROCK: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, there is nothing that bothers me more than have a TV evangelist go sour or a politician preach one thing and do another. If there is anything that bothers me it's this hypocritical type of activity. You preach one thing and you do another. Well, it's happening in our state and I think it needs to be pointed out. You look at your Omaha paper today, page 6B. They tell you about the evils of gambling and why we shouldn't have gambling in this state, and then you go over to page 5D, big ad with a slot machine on it. Almost on a daily basis we get preached by the Omaha World-Herald, which has the highest circulation in my legislative district, read by everybody, about the evils of gambling and we can't have it in our state. But just turn to the other pages and you will find big ads by Ameristar, Harrah's and Bluffs Run. Omaha World-Herald, which is it? You shouldn't be able to have it both ways. As politicians, we shouldn't preach one way in our public life and do something different in our private. And a TV evangelist, we've all listened to Jimmy Swaggart on television, I mean it's just re...it's just repulsive. And I'm going to ask the World-Herald, which way is it? Are you going to lead by example or you going to preach one
