and especially the way she does her job. She's an outstanding individual, treats all of us with a great deal more respect than we deserve, and that is Lynne Yost. Lynne, our chief sergeant at arms, worked in this Legislature a number of years ago for about nine years for two different senators, Senator Lewis and Senator Vickers, and I didn't know that either, but she came back to the Legislature about 1994, assistant sergeant at arms, and now she's been serving us as our chief. She has found something that she thinks will even bring her more happiness than being our sergeant at arms. It's a good thing for her. She's moving on and I understand there's a wedding that's going to happen and she's going to be living in a different part of the country. I just want to take this moment and express our great appreciation to Lynne Yost for all of the work she's done for us and the way she's done it. (Applause) And, Lynne, Lynne, you will always be welcomed back any time. We look forward to seeing you again when you come to visit. With that, members, I think you've again put in a hard week's work. We appreciate what's been accomplished this week and I wish you the best for a relaxing weekend. And, with that, Mr. President, are there messages or announcements that need to be made? Let's do that.

SENATOR CUDABACK: If I may, we'll allow the Clerk to read them in. Mr. Clerk.
