legislation, and then later through negotiations with either the tribes or with the casinos. I want you to know...I want to read you a list of compact guidelines that the state of Kansas passed when they were setting up their compacts with the Indian tribes of Kansas. One, they said, only one gaming facility on each reservation, to be located on reservation land. Land should definitely be described in the compact, and not by treaty. Two, limitation on hours opened. Any gaming facility should be closed a minimum of six hours each 24-hour period. Three, no video gambling games. Four, oh, I hate to read this one, Senator Chambers, no sports betting. Five, definite age restrictions. No one under 21 years of age allowed on the casino floor or allowed to play any of the games located thereon. Six, control of alcohol. No liquor of any type allowed on the gaming floor. No one under 20 years of age allowed to purchase or consume liquor on any part of the premises at any time. Seven, Kansas state sales tax should be collected and remitted to the state of Kansas for sales of any product, equipment, or merchandise to non-Indians. Eight, Kansas income tax should be collected and remitted to the state of Kansas for gaming winnings over $1,000 by non-Indians. Nine.. and this is...Senator Cunningham, I hope that you're listening to this somewhere. Infrastructure reimbursement should be agreed to by the Indian nation for any roads, highways, and maintenance of the same provided by either the state or adjoining cities, townships, et cetera. Ten, all Indian law enforcement agents or officers should be trained at the Kansas Bureau of Investigation training center. Eleven, availability as to audit. Inspection and review of the books of the gaming facility and its management and/or its operation should be available at any time, as often as needed or required by the state of Kansas. Twelve, the state of Kansas and the proper gaming authorities should have available for their review any proposed management...

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...contract background investigations and reports before said management contract is ratified. Thirteen, any additional gaming facilities should be negotiated under a separate and properly negotiated compact. Fourteen, there
